Vienna, May 23. N. S.

THE Empreſs has been inform'd that the Houſe ſhe had order'd to be prepared for her at Baden, where ſhe intends to drink the Waters, is not yet in a readineſs to receive her, upon which her Majeſty has put off her Journey to that Place till the Tenth of next Month. Monſieur Schunck, the King of Pruſſia's Secretary, who was ſent ſome time ago with a Commiſſion to this Court, is returned to Berlin. A Courier is arrived here from France, with ſome Diſpatches relating to the Congreſs of Baden, but the Contents of them are not yet certainly known. The Battalions of Bevern, Taun, and Lancken, are expected here very ſoon in their way to Hungary. They write from Buda, that there was a Band of Robbers aſſembled thereabouts, that they had put the Country under Contribution, and were grown ſo numerous and powerful, that it was thought the Government would be obliged to ſend a Body of regular Troops to ſuppreſs them. Letters from Turky bring an Account, that the King of Sweden continued ſtill at Demir Tocca, but Preparations were making for his Majeſty's departure, which it was thought would be very ſoon, and he had determined to return through Poland into his own Dominions. The late Hoſpodar of Valachia was brought to Conſtantinople under a ſtrong Guard, and immediately after his arrival he was committed to Priſon.

Gottorp, May 26. N. S. On the 20th General Scholten ſet out for Tonningen, from whence he is ſince gone to Staden, in order to review the Daniſh Regiments lately arrived from the Low-Countries. The King of Denmark continues ſtill at Frederickſbourg, and he has not yet fixed on a Day for his departure from thence. His Troops in this Country are to remain in their former Quarters till the arrival of his Majeſty, who intends to review them in Perſon. Count Van der Nath, Miniſter of Holſtein, is gone into Pomerania. Letters from Copenhagen bring an Account, that a Squadron of Seven Men of War, under the Command of Monſieur Tamſſen, was preparing to ſet ſail from thence, with Two of the Czar's Frigats, in order to join the Muſcovite Fleet on the Coaſts of Finland, and it was thought the King of Denmark's whole Fleet would be in a readineſs to put to Sea in a ſhort time.

Leipſick, May 27. N. S. On the 24th King Auguſtus ſet out for Dreſden, accompanied by Count Vitzdum, his Great Chamberlain, and ſeveral other Officers of the Court. The Miniſters that ſtaid here after his departure, were yeſterday in Conference with Count Flemming, who went this Morning, together with Count Wackerbart, towards Brunſwick, in order to be preſent at the opening of the Congreſs, and the Miniſters of the Republick of Poland are likewiſe expected there very ſoon. The Prince of Furſtenberg is gone to Wernſdorff, and the Prince of Radzevil to his Seat in Lithuania. The Primate of Poland has again writ to his Majeſty, in the Name of the whole Republick, to deſire he will give effectual Orders to prevent the raiſing of Contributions in the Palatinates of that Kingdom. We have receiv'd advice from Ukrain, that the Coſacks under the Command of Count Mattiwie, had been defeated by a Detachment of the King's Army, and thoſe who eſcaped in the Action were afterwards obliged to ſurrender themſelves Priſoners at diſcretion.

Hamburgh, June 1. N. S. We are informed, That the Counts Wackerbart and Flemming are arrived at Brunſwick, and it is thought the Conferences will begin very ſoon, unleſs his Imperial Majeſty and the Allies of the North ſhould conſent to have the Congreſs transferr'd to ſome other Place, as the Swedes have deſired. Monſieur de Broſſe, Envoy of King Auguſtus at the Court of Denmark, has received Orders from his Maſter to return home, and no other Miniſter has been yet nam'd in his Place. Baron Sparr and Monſieur de Rottenbourg have made ſome new Propoſals to the Court of Pruſſia, in favour of Sweden and Holſtein, but tho' they are ſaid to be much more advantageous than the former, it is doubted whether his Pruſſian Majeſty will agree to them. They write from Stockholm, that an Account was brought there of an Engagement between the Swediſh and Muſcovite Fleets near the River Corpo, in which the former had Taken and Sunk above Thirty of their Enemies Ships, and Admiral Wattrang was preparing to Attack them a Second Time, as ſoon as the Bomb-Veſſels were arrived. The principal Conditions of the Treaty of Peace lately concluded between King Auguſtus and the Ottoman Port, are theſe: His Majeſty and the Republick of Poland oblige themſelves to obſerve the firſt Article of the Treaty made the 13th of June, 1713, by the Muſcovite and Turkiſh Miniſters, as far as relates to the Affairs of that Kingdom. The Grand Signior is to give proper notice to the King and Republick, in caſe his Swediſh Majeſty ſhould reſolve to return into his own Dominions through Poland, and Commiſſioners are to be appointed to ſettle the manner of his Paſſage, which is to be Secure and Free, with a Retinue ſuitable to his Rank.

Cologne, June 1. N. S. The Electoral Prince of Saxony went from hence this Day towards Aix la Chapelle, extreamly pleas'd with the Reſpect that has been ſhewn him during his continuance at this Place. There have been frequent Robberies committed of late upon the High-Ways in this Electorate, but by the Diligence that has been uſed in apprehending the Malefactors, and bringing them to Juſtice, it is hop'd thoſe Diſorders will ſoon be at an end. The States of Munſter, that have been aſſembled for ſome time in that City, are now ſeparated. It is ſaid the King of Pruſſia intends to take ſome of the Troops of Heſſe Caſſel into his Service. The Burgher-Maſters of the Town of Huy have made great Complaints to the Imperial Council at Liege, of their being obliged to give Lodgings in their Houſes to the Forces in Garriſon there.

Hague, June 5. N. S. On the 2d Inſtant, the States of Holland and Weſt-Frieſeland ſeparated for three Weeks. Yeſterday the Earl of Strafford was in Conference with the Great Penſionary, as alſo with Prince Kurakin, Ambaſſador of the Czar, upon the Affairs of the North. General Hompeſch is appointed to be Governor of the Town of Namur, in the room of Count Tilly, who has obtained the Government of Bois le Duc, and that of Luxembourg, is conferred upon General Keppel. Monſieur Goſlinga, one of the Ambaſſadors of the States General to the Court of France, is expected here very ſoon,
